MARCH 6, 2016

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Road to Discipleship:

Parable of the Compassionate Father

"Although the word 'mercy' does not appear, [this parable of the Prodigal son] nevertheless expresses the essence of the divine mercy in a particularly clear way...The son ... squandered the ... inheritance belonging to him but has also hurt and offended his father by his whole conduct....Mercy ... has the interior form of the love that in the New Testament is called agape. This love is able to reach down to every prodigal, to every human misery, and to every form of moral misery, to sin. When this happens, the person who is the object of mercy does not feel humiliated, but rather found again and 'restored to value.'" Can you do the same to others as the compassionate Father? (From John Paul II, Dives in Misericordia, 5-6)
