

Jubilee for Prisoners

One of the most moving images of Pope Francis' ministry comes from Holy Thursday. Slowly, deliberately, Francis kneels down before prisoners- men, women, young, old, Christian, Muslim- and washes their feet, recalling Jesus admonition to Peter: "If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14). On today's Jubilee for Prisoners, whose rights the Church bids us advocate, Jesus declares in the gospel, "to (God) all are alive" (Luke 20.38). Have we 'imprisoned' anyone figuratively, but no less painfully, passing harsh judgment, then refusing our respect, acceptance, even affection? This month of All Saints and All Souls bids us reflect on our eternal destiny and prepare for it. Respect for ourselves and others, souls and bodies, practical care for neighbors and strangers: such witness affirms that we view our present in light of our future, and believe that, even now, in our midst, stands the Lord of life, the living Jesus.

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Church believes in resurrection and eternal life as revealed through Sacred Scripture.

Experience tells us that life on this earth is temporary. Faith teaches us that God intended life to be eternal. God offers us eternal life and reveals the glory of resurrection through his Son Jesus. We will come to inherit these blessings by believing in Jesus and uniting our lives to his.
